

FESTIVAL at home

Friday 22nd May

Time	Activity	Description	Led by
7:30PM – 8:15PM	Evening Celebration	To kick off our Festival at Home celebrations Ashley Cooper will be taking us to Jerusalem, thinking about the local church and what it means to be rooted with a global vision. Aided by sung worship from Sam Taylor.	Ashley Cooper
8:15PM – 8:30PM	Fire pit prayers	Gathering around the fire to talk, to pray, to reflect, is a tradition as old as humanity. This year, at Festival at Home, All We Can is delighted to bring you the digital fire pit. Warm yourself by the fire to share in stories, prayer and vision for God's world.	All We Can
9PM – 10PM	Fringe	Join us for an evening of music and testimony as we share with Josh Gillam and musicians from our friends at Christ Church, Illinois, as they bless us with their gifts through a variety of songs.	Josh Gillam

FESTIVAL at home

Saturday 23rd May

Time	Activity	Description	Led by
8AM – 8:30AM	Fire pit prayers	Join All We Can and guests around the digital fire pit as we reflect on Moses' encounter with God in the burning bush as we embark on the first full day of Festival.	All We Can
9AM – 9:05AM	Welcome	A morning greeting and notices on what to expect today!	Ashley Cooper & Alice Young
9:05AM – 9:15AM	Thought for the day	Join President and Vice President of Methodist Conference as they set a 'thought for the day' through storytelling and devotions.	President & Vice President of Methodist Conference
9:15AM – 10:15AM	Bible Study & Worship	Shane Bishop, our friend from Christ Church, Illinois, will be leading our Bible Studies this year at Festival at Home, joined by worship leader Josh Gillam. This morning's Bible Study will explore the resurrection considering how no one saw it coming, but it changed everything.	Shane Bishop & Josh Gillam
10:15AM – 10:30AM	LIVE catch up	Ashley Cooper, the College Principal will be LIVE as we celebrate the highlights of the day and share the latest announcements. Get involved and let us know what you've been enjoying.	Ashley Cooper
11AM – 11:30AM	All Together	It's time to worship together, ALL together...that means mums and dads, brothers and sisters, uncles, aunties, grannies, grandads, cousins, friends, neighbours, dogs, your friend's neighbour's dog...it means absolutely everyone coming together for one purpose... to worship the King. Join Sam and Sara Hargreaves, Bob Hartman and Play it by Ear as they lead you in song, storytelling and drama as well as plenty of action packed silliness. Come on everyone, let's do this All Together!	Play it by Ear, Bob Hartman & Sam and Sara Hargreaves

Continued

FESTIVAL at home

Saturday 23rd May

Time	Activity	Description	Led by
12PM – 12:30PM	Seminar: Embracing Hopelessness	This seminar argues that hope is a middle-class privilege designed to domesticate marginalised communities. If the disenfranchised seek liberation, then they must begin the process of decolonising their minds by rejecting Eurocentric theological concepts.	Dr. Miguel De La Torre
1PM – 1:30PM	Seminar: Change begins with Hope...	Discover how you can play a vital part in bringing hope and breaking the cycle of poverty. Hear inspiring stories from All We Can's work in Uganda, where bicycles are bringing hope.	All We Can
2PM – 2:30PM	Seminar: #MeToo Tweets the Pastor: Preventing and Intervening in Teen Dating Violence	This seminar explores theoretical and practical aspects of violence in adolescent romantic relationships. Pastors will consider ways of preventing and intervening in teen dating violence specific to their contexts.	Dr. Evelyn Parker
3PM – 3:30PM	Quick-fire questions	Share your quick-fire questions and comments from the seminars so far today and Andrew Harper will put them to our panel for a quick response. Join the conversation.	Andrew Harper, Sandra Brower, Justin Thacker & Jude Levermore
3:30PM – 3:45PM	LIVE catch up	Join College Principal, Ashley Cooper LIVE as he shares some of our highlights and invites you to mention yours, so get involved and comment what's been standing out to you. Ashley will share the latest announcements and what's still to come.	Ashley Cooper
4pm – 4:30pm	Seminar: The Gospel and the treasure of the Kingdom	Proclaiming and then entering into the Kingdom is at the heart of healthy evangelism. The former provides the call; the latter our response. When we respond we are taken into a whole new world where nothing can ever be the same: our morality, our experience of God, our vision of God, our commitment to the Church, the gifts God gives us, and the disciplines needed to sustain these amazing gifts of grace.	Prof. Billy Abraham
4:30pm-5pm	Digging Deeper	The Connexional Team will host a panel of people led by Alison Ransome (Vocations Advisor and a Regional Coordinator in the Learning Network) to explore ideas raised by the Revd Dr William Abraham. The panel will reflect on how to apply his teaching to our own context. If you have questions related to the seminar which you want the panel to discuss you will be able to send them in.	The Connexional Team

FESTIVAL at home

Saturday 23rd May

Time	Activity	Description	Led by
6PM – 6:30PM	O-30's Daily Recap	Catch-up with the children, youth and young adults about what they've been up to throughout the day. With a recap of what we've done so far, a taste of how we've been worshipping, competition winners, challenges and forfeits. This is sure to get you buzzing for the Instagram and YouTube platforms and be something you want to share!	O-30's Team
7:30PM – 8:15PM	Evening Celebration	Tonight's Celebration hosted by Ashley Cooper with worship from Sam Taylor; will take us to Judea. The word will be provided by Anthony Delaney a church planter in Manchester, teaching us how the church can reach into its community and city.	Ashley Cooper & Anthony Delaney
8:15PM – 8:30PM	Fire pit prayers	Gather around the fire to reflect on the activity of the day. Join All We Can and guests as we practice koinonia digitally as we share in a time of testimony.	All We Can
9PM – 10PM	Fringe: Games Night	Join Brad and Bryn as they host us for Games Night, setting us fun challenges and countdown tests to do from home. Don't forget to share your attempts with us through email and social media hashtags!	Brad Smith

FESTIVAL at home

Sunday 24th May

Time	Activity	Description	Led by
8AM – 8:30AM	Fire pit prayers	Gather around the digital fire pit with the All We Can team as we seek to gather in community like the early church did and encounter the fire of the Holy Spirit. Hear how change begins with a bike and how together with Festival at Home we are making a difference to some of the poorest communities around the world.	All We Can
9AM – 9:05AM	Welcome	A morning greeting and notices on what to expect today!	Ashley Cooper & Alice Young
9:05AM – 9:15AM	Thought for the day	Join President and Vice President of Methodist Conference as they set a 'thought for the day' through storytelling and devotions.	President & Vice President of Methodist Conference
9:15AM – 10:15AM	Bible Study & Worship	Shane Bishop opens up the Bible for us continuing the theme around John Wesley's idea of 'the World is my Parish', while Josh Gillam leads us in worship. This morning we consider the power of revelation, how the resurrection becomes more real as we recognise Christ.	Shane Bishop & Josh Gillam
10:15AM – 10:30AM	LIVE catch up	Join Ashley Cooper LIVE as another chance to share our favourite moments of the day so far. Ashley will also inform you of the latest announcements and highlight what's still to come.	Ashley Cooper
11AM – 11:30AM	All Together	Come together, All Together, to worship the King through song, storytelling and drama. Prepare to engage with this joyous action packed time.	Play it by Ear, Bob Hartman & Sam and Sara Hargreaves
12PM – 12:30PM	Seminar: Moving Beyond Hope	To embrace hopelessness requires a move beyond Eurocentric thought. What does it mean to create a worldview from the social location of the marginalised?	Dr. Miguel De La Torre
1PM – 1:30PM	Seminar: Lockdown, faith, hope and family life	Lessons of hope from two parents living through lockdown. Join two young dads, Matt and Tim from All We Can, as they share their experiences of family life and the lessons of hope from living amongst national lockdown and a global pandemic.	All We Can

Continued

FESTIVAL at home

Sunday 24th May

Time	Activity	Description	Led by
2PM – 2:30PM	Seminar: #MeToo Tweets the Friends of Billie Eilish	This seminar explores current data about violence in adolescent relationships and ways teens can be advocates against teen dating violence.	Dr. Evelyn Parker
3PM – 3:30PM	Quick-fire questions	Don't forget to share your quick-fire questions for our panel hosted by Andrew Harper on the seminars so far today. Join the conversation.	Andrew Harper, Sandra Brower, Justin Thacker & Jude Levermore
3:30PM – 3:45PM	LIVE catch up	Ashley Cooper, the College Principal will be LIVE as we celebrate the highlights of the day and share the latest announcements. Get involved and let us know what you've been enjoying. Join us for a special opportunity to hear from All We Can and their bike challenge!	Ashley Cooper & All We Can
4PM – 4:30PM	Seminar: Wesley's sermons as a treasure for spiritual direction	Wesley's sermons may seem obsolete and a dead letter; they are nothing of the kind when pondered with care. Carefully selected by Wesley himself, they set out to do three things: help us become serious Christians; call us to be the real deal as taught by Jesus; and then enable us to survive given the challenges we naturally face. In working through this agenda, Wesley gives us the distinctive Methodist spin on what it is to be a Christian.	Prof. Billy Abraham
4:30PM – 5PM	Digging Deeper:	Join the Connexional Team panel and Alison Ransome as they answer your questions raised from Revd Dr Billy Abraham's seminar as they reflect once again on how we may apply the teachings to our own contexts. Join the conversation and submit your questions.	The Connexional Team

Continued

FESTIVAL at home

Sunday 24th May

Time	Activity	Description	Led by
6PM – 6:30PM	O-30's Daily Recap	Now's the time to hear about what's been going on today across the Instagram and YouTube platforms for Festival. What have you joined in with today?	O-30's Team
7:30PM – 8:15PM	Evening Celebration	Ashley Cooper and Sam Taylor will tonight be joined by Evelyn Parker, taking our thinking to Samaria and how we and the church can be pushed beyond our comfort zones, Evelyn will be bringing us a preach that explores the Bible and her own ministry.	Ashley Cooper & Dr. Evelyn Parker
8:15PM – 8:30PM	Fire pit prayers	Join the celebration around the fire pit as we share in stories, prayer and vision for God's world. Hear the personal stories of how change begins with a bike.	All We Can
9PM – 10PM	Fringe: Quiz Night	So, you think you're clever? Come and prove it at our virtual quiz night. Gather your snacks and your team of no more than 6 for an evening of family entertainment, accessible for all ages.	Simon Chesterton

FESTIVAL at home

Monday 25th May

Time	Activity	Description	Led by
8AM – 8:30AM	Fire pit prayers	Gathering around the fire to talk, to pray, to reflect, is a tradition as old as humanity. This year, at Festival at Home, All We Can is delighted to bring you the digital fire pit. Warm yourself by the fire to share in stories, prayer and vision for God's world.	All We Can
9AM – 9:05AM	Welcome	A morning greeting and notices on what to expect today.	Ashley Cooper & Alice Young
9:05AM – 9:15AM	Thought for the day	Join President and Vice President of Methodist Conference as they set a 'thought for the day' through storytelling and devotions.	President & Vice President of Methodist Conference
9:15AM – 10:15AM	Bible Study & Worship	For the final time, Shane Bishop from Christ Church, Illinois, will be leading our Bible Study joined by worship leader Josh Gillam. This morning we'll explore commission as the empowerment to take the Good News to the world.	Shane Bishop & Josh Gillam
10:15AM – 10:30AM	LIVE catch up	Ashley Cooper, the College Principal will be LIVE as we celebrate the highlights of the day and share the latest announcements. Get involved and let us know what you've been enjoying.	Ashley Cooper
11AM – 11:30AM	All Together	It's time to join Sam, Sara, Chris, Ross and Bob Hartman for our final All Together worship time. Gather the household and prepare to join in.	Play it by Ear, Bob Hartman & Sam and Sara Hargreaves
12PM – 12:30PM	Seminar: Hope Against Hope	In this final section, we explore praxis. What becomes the proper ethical action in the midst of oppression, recognising that following the rules established by oppressors only reinforce repressive conditions.	Dr. Miguel De La Torre
1PM – 1:30PM	Seminar: Untold global impact of coronavirus	Coronavirus has radically changed our lives here in the West. In the global south, its impacts have been even harder to mitigate. Hear some of the personal stories behind the pandemic. Pray with the world's poorest communities. Give. Save lives.	All We Can

Continued

FESTIVAL at home

Monday 25th May

Time	Activity	Description	Led by
2PM – 2:30PM	Seminar: #MeToo Tweets her Parents: Preventing and Intervening in Teen Dating Violence	This seminar explores theoretical and practical aspects of violence in adolescent romantic relationships with attention to the role of parents. Parents will consider ways of preventing and intervening in teen dating violence specific to their contexts.	Dr. Evelyn Parker
3PM – 3:30PM	Quick-fire questions	Andrew Harper once again hosts a panel for quick-fire questions picking up your thoughts and questions from the seminars so far today. Join the conversation.	Andrew Harper, Sandra Brower, Justin Thacker & Jude Levermore
3:30PM – 3:45PM	LIVE catch up	Join Ashley Cooper LIVE as another chance to share our favourite moments of the day so far. Ashley will also inform you of the latest announcements and highlight what's still to come.	Ashley Cooper
4PM – 5PM	Seminar: Wesley's theology as a treasure for intellectual confidence	Wesley once said that sorting through the classical arguments for faith risked driving him to suicide. Yet he hammered out a fascinating set of arguments for securing the truth of faith even in a hostile world. So, he unpacked the assurance given to us through the witness of the Spirit; and he implicitly captured the crucial place of conspicuous holiness in bringing home the truth of the Gospel to outsiders. Unite the two so long divided, knowledge and vital piety, sang Charles Wesley. John showed how we can do so even today.	Prof. Billy Abraham
	Digging Deeper:	Alison Ransome will host a panel from the Connexional Team to expand on ideas raised by Dr Billy Abraham and consider how we may apply it in our own contexts. Submit your questions raised in the seminar for the panel to discuss.	The Connexional Team

Continued

FESTIVAL at home

Monday 25th May

Time	Activity	Description	Led by
6PM – 6:30PM	0-30's Daily Recap	Come and catch-up with the children, youth and young adults to hear about what they've been up to throughout the day. It's a time to celebrate and share what's been happening across the Festival platforms.	0-30's Team
7:30PM – 8:15PM	Evening Celebration	For our final Celebration, Eden Fletcher joins us from Hong Kong alongside Ashley Cooper and Sam Taylor, to lead us to the Ends of the Earth, in thinking about how we can go into all the world as a global Church and one community of faith.	Ashley Cooper & Eden Fletcher
8:15PM – 8:30PM	Fire pit prayers	The tradition of fire pit continues to next year as we look ahead to Cliff Festival 2021 'around the fire pit'. Come share in stories of the past few days and hear what we have to look forward to in 2021.	All We Can
9PM – 10PM	Fringe: The Final Hurrah!	Come and join us as we celebrate all that is good at the end of this incredible weekend. We round out the Festival with an offering from Stabal. They will be bringing us live and intimate music experiences from some of the best known names in contemporary Christian music, short films that will challenge us, interviews and much more, right into our living rooms.	Stabal